THE CHINA MAIL.

THE S. P. Cassandra was towed round to Aberdeen Docks this morning to be cleaned and painted. The Dock Company's works at Kowloon will be busily employed during the next few months, an extensive contract having just been signed with the Chinese Customs for a new gun-vessel for Canton waters.

We are informed that H. M. S. Wiven will shortly be paid off prior to taking up her new duties in connection with the defence of the harbour. She will not be recommissioned in the usual way, but will simply be attached to the Victor Emmanuel and will be under the immediate orders of the Commodore. A small party of men will be retained on board, and when it is thought desirable to send her out for a short cruise at any time, she will be manned from the receiving ship.

This case will be remembered in which two men, charged with breaking open and stealing from a box of treasure which was on board the Yokai, were tried in the Supreme Court, the case against them breaking down. Another of the men who was suspected of being implicated in the robbery was tried at Macao on Friday last, and was sentenced to ten years' penal servitude. Another man has yet to be tried at the present Sessions. On this man who was convicted, who was a Chinese passenger, there were found $250, believed to be part of the proceeds of the robbery, 16 skeleton keys, 3 small files, and a Chinese dagger.

We observe the small parade ground in front of the North Barracks is being laid with a covering of chunam. Some twelve months ago the ground was tilled over, with paths crossing at regular distances, but the men could not be induced to keep to the gravel and the green turf, which, though pretty enough when first laid, soon got completely trodden down. The chunam will be an improvement so far as the traffic goes, but will throw up a powerful glare during the heat of the day.

Some little consternation was aroused on Tuesday night by firing of what appeared to be a piece of heavy ordnance, about twenty minutes past ten o'clock, resounding in the wildest and most chimerical suggestions as to its cause. The concussion was loud and its effects were distinctly felt by those on board vessels adjoining the man-of-war anchorage, and many of the houses in the lower part of the town literally shook, it is said, as by an earthquake. When the matter comes to be enquired into, it turns out to have had a most harmless origin. The officers of H. M. S. Comus had been entertaining a few guests on board, and after due honour had been done to the good things, a pyrotechnic display was made, after which a torpedo was exploded, thus producing the noise and speculation we have alluded to.

H. E. the Governor of Macao has urged upon the home Government that the monthly contribution of $12,000 provided by that Colony as its share of the Naval Estimates be expended locally in the protection of Portuguese interests in the south of China. He has succeeded so far as to secure the services of two gunboats, the Mendovi and the Tamega, the former of which arrived at Macao last week, while the latter is expected shortly. One of these vessels will probably be stationed up the coast and the other will remain at Macao.

INVITATIONS have been issued for a musical soiree at the Club Lusitano on the 10th inst., the third centenary of Luiz de Camões, the illustrious author of the Lusiada. The facade of the building will be illuminated, and the Band, which we hear is an excellent one, of the Vital d'Ortiz will probably be present. We note from the home paper that the occasion will be celebrated at Lisbon by fêtes of some importance. The International Literary Association has been requested to hold its third session there, the first, it will be remembered, having taken place during the Exhibition year in Paris, and the second in London last summer. The Municipality of Lisbon, as well as the Portuguese Government, have expressed their intention of receiving the association with all possible honor. The reigning King himself, Dom Luís, has consented to be a member of the reception committee, and a series of fêtes will be given by him, as well as by his father, Don Fernando, who is President of the Royal Academy of Science. King Luis, who has already translated Hamlet into Portuguese, has just published a translation of The Merchant of Venice. A vessel of war is to be sent to some French port for the conveyance of those members of the association who have no fears of the terrors of the Bay of Biscay; while for the seafaring special arrangements are to be made with the railway companies in France, Spain and Portugal. Invitations have been sent out to representative literary men, and answers must be given before May 1st. The literary congress will last for five days, and will fill this place about the same time as Congress of Commercial Geography in continuation of that held in Brussels last year.

The following paragraphs are from the Globe of yesterday's date:—

The Right Honorable Sir Michael Hicks Beach, M.P., has consented to His Excellency the Governor the grants confirmation by Her Majesty the Queen of the acting appointment of the Honourable Ng Choy to be a Member of the Legislative Council. In the absence of the Honourable Hugh Gold Gibb.

In the event of bad weather being apprehended a black drum will be hoisted at the (Harbour Master's) Office Flagstaff. A similar signal will be hoisted and a gun will be fired from the Police Bulk. The usual signs of approaching bad weather are a failing Barometer with high thermometer, astringency of the atmosphere, and wildness and discolouration of the clouds. Should these symptoms exist and the wind be from the north-west, a typhoon of about 70 m.p.h. may be looked for. If there be the same indications of wind and weather with the wind between South-East and South-West, a typhoon may be known to be in the neighbourhood, but not likely to be severely felt at Hongkong. This signal is not to be considered as relieving Masters of ships from their proper responsibilities. The signal is intended only as calling the attention of the Mercantile Marine to any change of weather which is expected.

This following proclamation has been posted in the French settlement at Shanghai:

I am in receipt of a despatch from the Superintendent of Circuit Liu, containing instructions to the following purpose:—

The General-District Dr. Fook has forwarded to me a communication wherein he advises to the fact that Chinese as long fowl, ducks and all kind of fowl poultry about the

THE CHINA MAIL.

No. 5272.—JUNE 8, 1880.

Intimations.

THE CHINA REVIEW.

The widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style, but slightly modified in certain details.

THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East, is issued at intervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octavo pages, occasionally illustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, &c., should the paper published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter.

The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong, half yearly in advance.

The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manahs and Customs, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, the Eastern Archipelago and the "Far East" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Portuguese, are admissible. Endeavours are made to present a résumé in each number of the contents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review department.

Notes and Replies are classified together as "Notes" (head references being given, when furnished, to previous Notes or Queries), and to those queries which though bearing on information, furnish new and unpublished details concerning the matter in hand. It is desirable to make the Queries as brief as and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August, 1875, is at hand. It says that forty-two essays were sent in to compete for the best paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a state. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review. It is a sixty-paged, bi-monthly, repository of what scholars are ascertaining about China. The lecture on Chinese Poetry in this volume is alone worth the price of the Review. Address China Review, Hongkong.—Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.)

Trübner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:—"This is the title of a publication, the first number of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been set foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has been regretted in Europe as well as in China. The present publication, judging by the number of its subscribers, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are separately represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's Shu King, by the Rev. E. J. Etzel, to which the place of honour is deservedly given, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological periods and arguments involved in connection with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bourne, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance. The publication is intended to appear every two months, and will form a substantial octavo magazine."

THE CHINESE MAIL.

This paper is now issued every day. The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per annum delivered in Hongkong, or Seven Dollars Fifty Cents including postage to Coast ports.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community, amongst whom also are to be found the gentry and securities necessary to place it on a business and legal footing.

The projectors, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan—from Australia, California, Singapore, Penang, Siam, and other places frequented by the Chinese—consider themselves justified in guaranteeing an ultimate circulation of between 3,000 and 4,000 copies. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore undeniably great and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of them.

The field open to a paper of this description—conducted by native efforts, but progressive and anti-slavery in tone—is almost limitless. It is the hand command of Chinese belief and interest while on the other deserves every aid that can be given to it by foreigners. Like English journals it contains Editorials with Local, Shipping, and Commercial News and Advertisements.

Subscription orders for either of the above may be sent to:

Visitors' Column.

We have instituted as an experiment a Visitors' Column, which we trust will prove successful, and be found useful. To it will be relegated from time to time such items of information, lists, tables and other intelligence as is considered likely to prove valuable to persons passing through the City, and in connection with it. We have opened a SELECT HOTEL AND BUSINESS DIRECTORY, applications for enrolment into which we are now ready to receive.
